

XM Satellittle Radio fills a void, instant traffic & weather, that local broadcasters in my area have chosen to ignore. Keeping XM from providing this service is a dis-service to me. Local broadcasters should learn to compete by providing services the customer wants, not what they feel the customer should have when and if they want to provide it.